

Dear Chairman Powell,

The changes that you've proposed making this Monday are not in anyone's interest but a few huge media conglomerates. The radio station consolidation that occurred after the change in ownership rules is not in the public's interest. Please retain the current ownership rules.